Jersey.

Changes to the Policies and Procedures We reserve the right when necessary to modify reservation policies.

Current reservation policies are available on the Internet at www.recreation.gov and at participating NRRS field locations.

NOTES

FORT HUNT: PERMIT USE & PERMIT REVOCATION CONDITIONS

- The reservation confirmation serves as your acknowledgement of/agreement to abide by the rules and permit conditions.
- Permittee or a designee must have the permit on-site for the entire event, including set-up and break-down. The permit is only valid from 10:00 am to 6:00 pm, with no exclusive use prior to/after this. Caterers and/or Contractors setting-up prior to or staying after the Permittee must have a copy of the permit and serve as the Permit Holder. No set-up or unloading allowed without a Permit Holder present.
- Permits can be revoked for: Breaching any condition listed herein.
- The exchange of money at Fort Hunt Park (This includes: vending, fund-raising, raffles, collection of fees, and paying caterers and/or contractors) is prohibited.
- Multiple same day permits are allowed, but the Permittee must comply with each Area capacity rules related to parking and the number of people. Call Ranger for details!
- Permittee agrees to indemnify, defend, save and hold harmless the United States, its agents and employees from all liabilities, claims, damages and/or suits, charges, expenses and costs on account of any such injuries, deaths, liabilities, claims, suits or losses to any person or property of the Permittee, its agents or employees, or third parties, during the term of this agreement, by any occupancy, use, or activity in the park carried on by the Permittee in connection with the permit.
- National Park Service staff is not responsible for unattended private belongings.
- Noise levels must not disturb other Picnic Areas, park visitors, or the nearby neighborhood. Amplified music is only allowed at Area A.
- Decorations are restricted to Pavilions and picnic tables. The decorations may only be tied or taped. No directional signs, markers, balloons, or similar items are allowed.
- Ground penetration, such as for signs, volleyball poles, or stakes is not allowed. Call Ranger for details!
- Special activities or amusement features (such as a moon bounces, pony rides, croquet, and Frisbee-golf) must be coordinated in advance with the Fort Hunt Ranger.
